

Welcome to Osnabrück University!

Founded in 1974, Osnabrück University offers its 14.000 students an ideally-sized education experience through numerous accredited undergraduate and graduate degree programs in the Humanities, Social Sciences, Natural Sciences, Business and Law. The university is committed to offering its students small study groups and lively interactions between professors and students – our International Summer Schools, for instance, seldom feature more than 20 students in class. Award-winning student services, a diverse sports program, and an international atmosphere further enhance the academic experience at Osnabrück University.

Each July, Osnabrück University hosts students and professionals for its International Summer Schools. With a mixture of well-established programs and innovative courses, they represent a unique opportunity to experience student life at a renowned German university. As a participant, you will get to enjoy captivating German lessons taught by highly qualified and motivated teachers, an exciting cultural program as well as an innovative partner program.

2023 International Summer Schools in Germany

Introduction to German Language and Culture
July 16 – August 5, 2023

International Summer School on »German Language and Culture« (GLC), July 16 – August 5, 2023

This Summer School offers participants with no prior knowledge of the German language the opportunity to acquire or build upon foundations of German and to experience more than 1000 years of German culture and civilization in and around the city of Osnabrück, the City of Peace. By the end of the program, students will have mastered basic language skills in German equivalent to level A1.1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

The programme is a cooperation between the Language Center (Sprachenzentrum) and the International Office at Osnabrück University.

We offer

- a total of 50 hours of classroom instruction
- an interactive lesson design and small group learning
- hands-on language practice during leisure activities with student partners from Osnabrück University
- a rich cultural and recreational program plus an optional 3-day trip to Berlin
- certification of up to 5 ECTS credits points at proficiency level A1 of the CEFR upon successful completion of the language course

Program

Throughout the three weeks, the language course will train all four language skills (speaking, listening, reading and writing) and will cover grammar and lexis necessary to:

- A1.1
- introduce yourself and others,
 - talk about your family and friends,
 - go shopping,
 - express culinary preferences,
 - describe your room,
 - tell the time,
 - inform others about your daily schedule,
 - talk about the weather and the seasons,
 - describe what you do in your spare time,
 - provide details about your personal interests.

Assessment will be in the form of project work, an interactive oral and a pen-and-paper exam at the end of the course.
